

PAID MPS ARTS INTERNSHIP

at Woodland Pattern Book Center

POETS AND WRITERS! We are looking for a dedicated and creative MPS high-school student to help us run our Summer Youth Poetry Camps and Youth Literary Arts Programs.

hybrid -virtual and in-person

JUNE 7 – AUGUST 6, 2021 $9.50/hr

SCHEDULE:

Monday-Friday from 8:30-4:30

June 14-18 & August 2-6, with a one-hour lunch break built in,

and eight hours a week between 9:00 am-5:00 pm (exact times TBD) July 6-29.

POSITION DESCRIPTION: The Literary Arts Program Assistant will work alongside the Education Director and assist in all aspects of planning, executing, and recording programming activities for Woodland Pattern's Poetry Camp and Summer CLC programs. This includes, but is not limited to, lesson planning, materials preparation, documenting and reporting daily activities, and mentoring children of all ages and backgrounds. Ideal candidates will have strong writing and organizational skills with an interest in poetry, the arts, and working with children.

ARTISTIC DEVELOPMENT & TRAINING:

Throughout this internship you will be immersed in teaching, writing, and artistic production, working with a team of diverse writing instructors and guest artists. You will have the opportunity to practice writing and working in different mediums as you create art with students. You will gain experience and confidence in mentoring students, expand your artistic network, and receive job experience and training in the arts.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Applicants must be a City of Milwaukee resident or an MPS high school student and at least 15 years old.

To apply:

Visit mkerec.net/artsinterns for the full application and guidelines.

DEADLINE TO APPLY: FRIDAY, MAY 28, 2021

Questions?

Contact: Alexa Nutile, Education Director — alexan@woodlandpattern.org